

Russian Fairy Tales

RUSS 3540-001

MoWe/01:25PM-02:45PM

3 credits

Readings & discussions in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces students to Russian folklore through the genre of fairy tales (from oral tales to literary fairy tales and film versions) in their aesthetic, historical, social, and psychological contexts, so as to acquaint them with structures of thought underpinning modes of Russian culture and behavior. Readings and discussion in English.

INSTRUCTOR

Prof. Natalya Kuznetsova

natalya.kuznetsova@utah.edu

Russian CLAC Section

RUSS 3903 - 001 course

Class time: TBA

What is a CLAC Section?

In this compact 1-credit class, you will discuss in Russian, selections of texts/articles linked to RUSS 3540.

Who can take the course?

Anyone enrolled in RUSS 3540, whose Russian speaking skills are at the intermediate level or higher, and who would like more opportunities to communicate in Russian.

