

Russia & Asia

RUSS 3580-002

MoWe / 03:00PM-04:20PM

3 credits

readings & discussion in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Seventy-five percent of Russia's territory lies in Asia, but since only twenty-two percent of its population resides there, Russian Studies has tended to be Eurocentric. This course aims to broaden students' understanding of the Russia that lies beyond the Ural Mountains. The course takes an interdisciplinary approach and each topic addressed will include foundational information followed by exploration of a related contemporary issue. For example, we will begin with a basic geographic survey and then consider the impact of climate change on the region.

INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Jane Hacking

j.hacking@utah.edu

Russian CLAC Section

RUSS 3903-001

Instructor: Liz Ewaskio

Class time: TBA

1 credit course

What is a CLAC Section?

In this one-hour-a-week class, students will discuss short selections of readings linked to RUSS 3580-001 in Russian.

Who can take the course?

Anyone currently enrolled in RUSS 3580, whose Russian speaking skills are at the intermediate level or higher, and who would like more opportunities to communicate in Russian.

For more information, visit our website:

<http://ias.utah.edu/language/clac.php>