Nahuatl is a living indigenous language spoken in Mexico and part of the Uto-Aztecan language family.

WHAT IS NAHUATL?

TUESDAY
FEBRUARY 16, 2016

Nahuatl Language & Poetry workshop.
Presented in Nahuatl, no prior experience required, come ready to learn and engage.
Noon-2pm
LNCO Lounge

Nahuatl Movie Screening: Café (2014)
5:30-7PM
Salt Lake Public Library Main Branch room 8
210 East 400 South

WEDNESDAY
FEBRUARY 17, 2016

Nahuatl Language & Poetry workshop.
Presented in Nahuatl, no prior experience required, come ready to learn and engage.
Noon-2pm
LNCO Lounge RM 2110

FRIDAY
FEBRUARY 19, 2016

Community Event: Nahuatl Language & Poetry workshop, with Lotería and food!
Presented in Spanish with English translation
5-8 PM
Glendale Community Learning Center Rooms 182 & 183
1388 South Navajo Street, SLC

Nahuatl fulfills your BA requirements!

Nahuatl is one of the many languages offered at the University of Utah and taught through distance learning technologies.

Eduardo de la Cruz Cruz is a native speaker of the Nahuatl Variant of La Huasteca Veracruzana and the lead instructor for the Nahuatl courses offered at the University of Utah. He is the subdirector of the Zacatecas Institute for Teaching and Research in Ethnology (IDIEZ) in collaboration with the Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas.

For more info contact Lu Marzulli
l.marzulli@utah.edu
801.581.6105